Submitted to the Viceroy

There seems to be no objection to permitting the removal of the Vathu idols referred to in para 2 of the letter as the idols are said to be lying without worship for 300 years.

Yes

As regards the Basava referred to in para 3 the idol appears to be worshipped now along with others in the Sultanpet, and the removal seems open to objection. The Agent's opinion is not I think sufficient.

From,

Asst Deputy Commissioner,

Mysore District.

To L. Anantaswami Rao Esquire BA.

Deputy ~~The~~ Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

Mysore ~~Revenue and General~~ Departments.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the mother of Mr. Kantaraj Urs has built a temple in the old Agrahar, Mysore, and the consecration ceremony is fixed for the 18th Instant. Mr. Kantaraj Urs requests permission to remove to Mysore, for the purpose, the idols of certain temples in the Nanjangud Taluk.

2. Of these the stone idol of Lakshmi Narayana-Swami together with the bronze Utsavamoorthys viz Narayana Swami, Sreedevi, Bhudevi is reported to be lying in the Mallikarjuneswara temple at Hura, the Narayana-Swami temple having fallen into ruins long ago. The Amildar reports that worship ceased to be performed to the above idols some 300 years back and that the villagers have no objection to the idols being removed to Mysore.

3. The other image applied for is that of Basava in the Srikanteswara Swami temple at Nanjangud. It finds a place in the row of "Linyas" (ಲಿಂಗಗಳು) and "Basavas" established by devotees in the "Suttalugudi" (ಸುತ್ತಲುಗುಡಿ). The Amildar reports that the Agamika says that it is superfluous there and that there is no objection to its being removed.

4. Under the above circumstances I beg that you will be so good as to obtain sanction of Government for the removal of the aforesaid idols to Mysore for being consecrated in the temple built by the mother of Mr. Kantaraj Urs at Mysore on the 18th Instant.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. Ramanujiengar

Asst Deputy Commissioner,

Order thereon:—

RO Camp A
Dy Mysore 16.6.1902

In para 2 of

the Dy Commr reports that the idol of & Bhoodevi, are lying in the Mallikarjuneswara temple at Hura, Nanjangud Taluk, without worship, for about to these idols being removed.

The Govt see no objection to permit the removal of these Vishnu idols, for the purpose of being consecrated in the new temple built by the late Mrs M. Kantaraj Urs at Mysore, as they are lying without worship for a long time.

2. ~~And~~, As regards the Basava referred to in para 3 of the letter read above, the idol appears to be worshipped now along with others in the Suthalagudi in the Sri Srikanteswaraswami temple at Nanjangud. The Agamik's opinion in the matter of its removal is not sufficient, as the same is open to objection.

3. The Govt. desire to point out to the Dr Commr, that he should not send up such urgent applications in ordinary matters. There is no reason why the application should not have been made in proper time to admit of sufficient time for consideration
